Resolutions on Matters of General Public Interest.

(18) Cosmopolitan Hostel (contd.)

President.—We shall now continue the discussion of resolution No. 18.

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar.—The resultion runs thus: "This Council recommends to the Government to start a Cosmopolitan Hostel attached to the Maharaja's College, Ernakulam, in the building now used for the Caste-Hindu Hostel".

Yesterday, while this resolution was discussed here, most of the discussion turned upon the abstract question of whether hostels should be established on sectarian lines or on cosmopolitan lines. Yesterday was not the first time in this Council, so far as this question was concerned, that resolutions of this nature have been moved, and it is gratifying to note that over
